Ron Wildermuth
Public and Governmental Affairs Manager
West Basin Municipal Water District

As the Public and Governmental Affairs Manager for the West Basin Municipal Water District, Ron Wildermuth is committed to educating the agency's one million customers and stakeholders about water reliability, water quality, sound resource and financial management, customer service and environmental stewardship.

Prior to joining West Basin, Ron served as Communications Director for the Orange County Water District, where he oversaw an award-winning outreach education program supporting the agency's innovative Groundwater Replenishment System.

While a Captain in the U.S. Navy, Ron was Public Relations Advisor to General H. Norman Schwarzkopf before, during and after the Gulf War. In that capacity, Ron supervised all in-theater public relations during the Gulf War.

Ron is now a retired Navy Captain and is a member of the Santa Ana Zoo Board of Directors.
